NATIONAL KOREAN KARATE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Esteemed Masters, Instructors, Parents, and Students,

We have dedicated significant effort to ensure that the National Korean Karate Championships will be a well-organized, equitable, and fulfilling experience for all involved in Korean martial arts training. The success of this tournament relies on each of you—masters, instructors, parents, and competitors—who have exemplified the spirit, commitment, and dedication essential to this event. We extend our heartfelt thanks for your loyalty to martial arts and your exemplary sportsmanship. We also wish every competitor the best of luck and commend them for participating in this thrilling martial arts journey.

Thank you for being part of this celebration of martial arts through your involvement in this remarkable event.

Warm regards,
Grandmaster Frederick Scott and Master Joe Goss Jr.
